Building Updates

Congratulations to Christine Carver for being sworn in as an attorney! We're excited to have her join our Family Law team and know she's a great addition to our firm as a whole.

We made a big step in the progress of our new building late this month with the delivery of our furniture. As good as the inside building has looked recently, adding all of the furniture is starting to make it look more and more like home.

We're so excited to welcome you into our new space soon!

Night at the Knights Game

Golfing for a Great Cause

We were pleased once again to sponsor a hole for Bright Blessings Golf Tournament on May 8th.

Attorney Mark Jetton hosted his colleagues and friends to a Charlotte Knights game.

Watching a game from a dugout suite is pretty hard to beat, but sharing the experience with the people who support Mark and Jetton & Meredith made it even more special!

We're looking forward to another great baseball season.

Go Knights!

Bright Blessings is a Charlotte organization that aims to help children in poverty and homelessness through mobilizing volunteers. This fun golf outing supports Bright Blessings' programs and thousands of homeless and impoverished children.

This event raised over $30,000 for this great cause! We are already looking forward to next year's event!

Wait Times and Mental Health

"You've probably heard a lot about our country's mental health crisis. Crisis also describes North Carolina's mental health system."

Recently, our very own Jason St. Aubin was interviewed by WFAE to share one of his client's experiences with the North Carolina mental health system. WFAE accompanied St. Aubin to the jail seven times over a five-month span to meet with his client.

WBTV Story Regarding Senior Pranks

Attorney Mark Jetton spoke with WBTV last week regarding a series of senior pranks at local high schools that went far enough to face criminal charges and what it could mean for the students who carried out the pranks.

Speeding in North Carolina

As a driver in North Carolina, it is important to know and understand the many driver's licenses and insurance points that can affect a person's license.

In North Carolina, a traffic ticket is not just some inconvenience but, in fact, a criminal charge that carries extensive penalties.

How to Explain Divorce to Your Child

Divorce is an emotionally charged topic full of questions and feelings that can often be hard to put into words. This makes explaining the complexities of divorce to children one of the most difficult conversations for a parent. It is important to approach this conversation with care, as it could have lasting effects on your child's emotional growth.
